CREAM OF NEWS.

IF IT IS NEW AND TRUE THIS COLUMN
HAS IT.

Charlie McDaniel Not Indicted—Crumbbaugh and Bell off for Frankfort
—Fires Burglar and Other Matters.

Dance Last Night.

The young gentlemen guests of Hotel Latham gave a very delightful dance last night at the hotel. Quite a crowd of young people were present and dancing lasted from 8:30 till 12 o'clock. Music was made by Ward's band.

After the Hops for Betting.

The grand jury made an effort to discover those guilty of betting on the election and actually returned in indictments. The penalty is $100 and a forfeiture of all winnings to the state.

Fire at Nortonville.

The dwelling house of Mr. W. W.
Wilkins, of Nortonville, formerly of this city, was destroyed by fire, together with its entire contents, one night this week. Mr. Wilkins' loss is a heavy one as he had no insurance either on building or furniture.

The City Directory.

About sixty pages of the city directory is now in type and the book will be out by April 1 unless hindered by some unforeseen obstacle. It will be a book of about 10 pages and will contain not far from 3000 names.
House numbers can still be added in the unprinted pages of the book.

Maj. Crumbaugh and Capt. Bell.

Mr. S. R. Crumbaugh, who thinks he was elected senator last fall, left yesterday for Frankfort and will ask to be seated to-morrow. Capt. C.
D. Bell, who was duly chosen senator
by a majority of the legal votes, cast, also left for Frankfort today and will be on hand when the senate meets to-morrow.

After Capt. Paul's Seizure.

It is said the Republicans have promised to turn out Capt. R. S. Pool, postmaster at Gracey, at the earliest possible moment, and give the place to Mr. W. F. Cox, whose son-in-law Frank Wilson, is in business in Gracey. The office pays about $500
a year.

Chas. G. McDaniel Not Indicted.

The grand jury did not find an indictment against Charlie McDaniel, who was charged with entering W. S.
Boales' boarding house with felonious intent one night last fall. The case was investigated but a majority of the jurors did not think that the facts justified an indictment. Mr.
McDaniel was under bond to answer the action of the grand jury and he
of course now stands acquitted.

A Small Fire Monday Night.

The merchant tailoring establishment of A. Clark, on Ninth Street, which caught fire Saturday night,
again caught Monday night, and the stock of goods was destroyed. The department arrived in time, thanks to the new electric alarm system, to save the building and confine the fire to the room in which it originated. Mr.
Frank Bennett turned in the alarm, having discovered the smoke late at night as he was going home. The loss is estimated by Mr. Clark at $400, which is covered by insurance to the amount of $800.

Fatal Accident at Gracey.

Emer Raymer, the four-year-old son of Agent Raymer, of the Ohio Valley road at Gracey, swallowed a piece of pipe stem on Sunday morning. It was about two inches long and the little fellow was blowing through the hollow in it, when it slipped down his throat. The local physicians were unable to relieve him and his father took him to Evansville for surgical treatment Sunday night. Monday night he telegraphed for Mrs. Raymer, as the little fellow was nearing the end. The news of his death was received Tuesday. The boy was a bright little fellow and his melancholy fate is deeply regretted by all who knew him.

"Quinine Jim."

Our "Quinine Jim" McKenzie is in the midst of a rebellion.

Fortunately he is not personally mixed up in the trouble, but he may have a chance to work the rabbit foot of arbitration on the warring elements.
The Peruvian Government has received information that the Separatist movement in the province of Soreto still continues. The rebellion was started in Inapit by Senaario.
He led rather than meet the Federal troops, but he said another leader Madimounos, has taken his place, and has issued a manifesto calling for recruits. Bowling Green Times.

Cleveland Left a Balance.

Washington, March 10.—The statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $211, $12,406; gold reserve, $160,860,328.

DR. GARDNER GETS IT.

THE GOVERNOR NAMES DR. LETCH-ER'S SUCCESSOR.

The Formal Appointment Made Wednesday—The Madisonville Doctor a Good Man.

Frankfort, Ky., March 10.—The Senate will have several gubernatorial appointments to pass upon as soon as it is again in session. The governor this morning formally appointed Dr.
T. W. Gardner of Madisonville, to be superintendent of the Hopkinsville asylum, vice Dr. Ben Letcher resigned.

Dr. Gardner is a prominent physician of Madisonville and is also engaged in the drug business. He has been a leading Republican and was a Bradley delegate to St. Louis last June, having been elected over Maj.
Crumbaugh by one vote, in a combination engineered by Dr. Miller, of Owensboro, the present first assistant physician of the Hopkinsville asylum. It is believed here that Gov. Bradley will reconsider his own praise of Dr. Miller's resignation and either allow him to remain here or transfer him to one of the other asylums.

The exact date upon which the new superintendent will assume his duties is not known.

Grand Jury Adjourned.

The Grand Jury adjourned at noon
Wednesday after returning the following additional indictments.

Eph Poston, renting house for illegal purposes.

Rhoda Rhodes, keeping bawdy
house.

Eva Bacon, same.

Mattie Bacon, same.

Frank Barker, col. gaming.

Herbert Callis, col. same.

George Lauder, same, same.

Tom Davis, col. same.

Ed Dabney, col. same.

John Wills, col. same.

Phil Tandy, c. c. d. w.

Beverly Sargent, same.

Sarah F. Chubbless, receiving stolen goods knowingly.

Lacy Garth, col. same.

Cesar Hoach, col. uttering forged check.

Lee Williams, unlawfully selling property of another.

One other indictment was also returned against two parties for betting on the election.

Will Take Poultry for Taxes.

Freeman Rogers, fusion candidate for sheriff of Trigg county, one of the offices allowed the Populists on the ticket, has issued a circular which he makes this proposition to suit the
"hard times":
"Fellow citizens, being engaged on my farm and not having the time to convene and see you in person, I take this method of asking your support, and promising you if elected I will show you all the favors that I can. I will take chickens, geese, ducks and hens in payment of your taxes and allow you cash prices for the same. I have a nephew who is engaged in the poultry business, and will meet you at Canton, Golden Pond, Energy, Laura Furnace, Linton, Dorsey, Chewling, Roaring Springs, and all other points where I go to collect taxes. I mean what I say if you have such things as I have mentioned it will suit as well as money.

Now I ask all who feel the pressure of hard times to consider if it would not be a benefit to you to have some money by which you can pay your taxes when you have not got the money."

Will Tackle Reb. & Sinners.

Rev. W. M. Rodgers, of Nashville, the street evangelist who visits and preaches in many of the Kentucky towns, and who has preached several sermons here, will begin a protracted meeting in Sebree to-morrow night.
He closed a very successful meeting at Norton's Gap last week and delivered two sermons in Cadiz last Monday, it being county court day.
Dr. Rodgers is a forcible speaker and says many things in his street talks that are calculated to do great good.
He always has good attention where-ever he preaches, and his audiences are sometimes composed largely of a class of men who rarely ever attend church, but enjoy his sermons very much. At the close of his exhortations collection is always taken up and on nearly every occasion the contributions are liberal.

May Be a Chance For Walling.

Frankfort, Ky., March 10.—While the governor is only considering Jackson's case to-day, there are strange assertions and offers to bet that Walling will be not reprimanded, but have his death sentence commuted to life imprisonment.

The Governor himself will say nothing further than that he has not yet considered Walling's case.

Another toll-gate has been destroyed in Lincoln county by raiders.

A BROKEN RAIL.

CHICAGO CANNON BALL DUE HERE AT 6:07 WRECKED.

Several Persons Killed and Others Badly Injured.

Princeton, Ind., March 10.—At 3 o'clock this morning, near Hazleton, south bound train No. 94, Chicago and Nashville limited, composed of a locomotive, combination baggage and mail car, smoker, day coach and a sleeper, met with a fatal accident by a washout from backwater from White river.

Engineer John McCutcheon, of Evansville, says the train was going twenty five miles an hour when he saw an insignificant hole on the side of the track. The locomotive passed over safely, then took a plunge down the sixteen foot embankment and was buried out of sight. At the same time the mail and baggage car plunged into the flood headforemost, telescoping the top of the smoker, which followed it. The day car and the sleeper remained on the track.
The killed so far known are:
Geo. A. Sears, of Terre Haute, conductor in smoker.

Joe Bonnum, fireman, Evansville, buried under locomotive.

Herbert Allen, doorkeeper of the legislature, Indianapolis.

Two unknown passengers.

PROBABLY DEAD.

W. B. Phillips, Fort Wayne, Ind.

THE INJURED.

Engineer John McCutcheon, of Evansville, scalded about the legs and arms and bruised.

Jehu B. Hausen, brakeman, Evansville, foot badly crushed.

Tony Carroll's daily interview.

Louisville, Mar. 11.—Senator William Jones, of Barren county, chairman of the Republican senatorial caucus, is in this city. He arrived last night with Representative N. T. Howard, of Butler county, and immediately went to the Victoria Hotel, where he met Dr. Hunter. Later in the evening he issued a call for a caucus of Republican members at Frankfort on Friday night next.

Representative A. J. Carroll yesterday received a letter from Representative J. A. Violet, of Frankfort, one of the former Democratic members, in which Mr. Violet says that the bolting Democratic should hold a caucus and decide upon a course of action. Mr. Violet said that if a gold Democrat could not be elected he preferred Judge Holtz to any other Republican. Mr. Carroll has received similar letters from several other former Democratic members.

In speaking of the story that the Democrats would attempt to justify their action in throwing out the four Republican Senators on the ground that there are four Republican members of the House who are ineligible because they are holding other positions. Mr. Carroll said:
"This would simply be mob law.
The only way to settle the contests is upon their merits. If any members are illegally elected, or are now ineligible, they should be unseated, and I should like to see it. If the cases of the Republicans in the House, who it is claimed are ineligible, come up I will vote to unseat them, if they are not entitled to their seats."

The Republicans in the House who are said to be ineligible are J. E.
Hatchell, Pike county, a postmaster;
E. T. Burnham, Madison county, now
Deputy Insurance Commissioner; R.
S. Speed, Jefferson county, Superintendent of Jacob Park, and Geo. C.
Lieberth, Newport, Chief of Police.
The sections of the Constitution of Kentucky bearing on these points are numbers 165 and 237.

Norwood Loses His Place.

Frankfort, Ky., March 9.—The governor this morning appointed George W. Stone, of Leitchfield, to be State
Inspector of mines, to succeed Prof.
G. J. Norwood on April 1. The appointee is a distinguished lawyer and is 51 years old.

The tip is out that the assistant inspector's place, which is not vacant till June, will be filled by a gold standard democrat, and that Prof.
Norwood himself may be the man.

Work of Thieves at Wallonia.

The dry goods store of Mr. Will Hopson, at Wallonia, was broken into a few nights ago. About twenty dollars was stolen, all in nickles, dimes and coppers, and also some jewelry was taken to have been taken from the show cases. The large folding doors were forced open and were left open by the burglars when they left.
No clue.

Dr. E. S. Baker, of Madisonville, has announced himself a Republican candidate for the Senate composed of the counties of Hopkins and Christian.

Ex Senator Dolph, of Oregon, died Wednesday from the effects of the amputation of a leg.

Tony Carroll seems to be ambitious to pass into history as a pocket edition of John G. Canale.

Women will be admitted to the Corbett Fitzsimmons fight on the 17th inst. This is a new departure in pugilism.

Harmon Kamp, a Covington man, shot off his mother-in-law's ear, but the lady stood her ground and disarmed him and turned him over to the police.

Lindsay, Gray and Caffery, the three Palmerite Senators, were invited into the Democratic caucus, but only Lindsay attended and he took no part in the proceedings.

The Louisville Post seems to be in earnest about wanting harmony in the Democratic party. All right, Brother Knott, whenever you are willing to harmonize on the Democratic platform, here is our hand.

The Democrats and Populists of Breckinridge county, as in many other counties, are feasting together on pens and hominy served on a silver waiter. A full fusion ticket has been nominated and the utmost satisfaction and good feeling prevails.

Only three of the Democratic traitors are left in the Senate—Lindsay, Gray and Caffery. Hereafter the "good standard Democrat" will be a rare avis in politics and by 1900 the genus will only exist in dime museums.

According to the Courier-Journal, Tony Carroll has thrown off his mask and is now "one of Judge Holt's managers." Kicking Tony out of the Lexington convention was the "blow that almost killed father." The public will be surprised if he does not go into the Republican caucus.

The extra session of the senate has been ended without any attention being paid to Maj. A. T. Wood's claim to a seat. The special session which begins next week will afford him an other opportunity to get a hearing, but there is small probability that Wood will ever get within forty feet of Joe Blackburn's seat.

Turkey has concentrated 55,000 troops on the Greek frontier. British and Italian transports loaded with troops have arrived at Canoe, but it is believed at Constantinople that the Powers will take longer time to negotiate with Greece before resorting to force. At Athens, war between Greece and Turkey is considered unavoidable.

Mrs. Eunice Bullard Beecher, widow of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, died at Stamford, Conn., last Monday in the 85th year of her age. An incident is recalled of her marriage to her distinguished husband.

Miss Bullard's sisters had been married in stormy weather, and she declared the ceremony in which she was a contracting party must take place while the sun shone. The hour was set for 3 o'clock on August 3, 1837. Just before the time a violent storm arose with thunder and lightning. The parson was in waiting, the guest had assembled and Mr. Beecher was impatient. The bride was firm, however, and the ceremony was postponed one hour. At 4 o'clock the sun appeared, and as the bride, leaning upon the arm of her husband-to-be, entered the parlor, a rainbow, one of the most brilliant the members of the party had ever seen, appeared on the horizon.

Mrs. Beecher was always devotedly attached to her husband and children. Of the latter, four are living and four dead.

All the members of the Cabinet have indicated a purpose to make few and gradual changes in the personnel of their departments.

A WORD ABOUT COUNTY POLITICS.

There is now hardly a doubt, that the Democratic mass convention which will meet at 10 o'clock on Monday April 5 will nominate a full county ticket. A thorough understanding exist between Democrats and Populists and both parties will take part in the convention. Any other good citizen who are in favor of reform and economy in county politics—and there are many in the Republican party—are invited to take part. The county is very badly ring ridden and expenses have already been increased until the tax rate has been raised from 80 to 92 cents and will be a dollar by the time the Frankfort end of the present administration gets through with the work of increasing the burdens of the people. There are many things upon which the light should be turned and this can be best accomplished by putting out a county ticket of good men who will go before the people and point out to them the existing evils. There is no reason why Christian county should be dominated by a court house clique that fills the offices with incompetent men whose ideas, especially in the fiscal court, are a net mesh to the welfare and future solvency of the county. There was never a better opportunity for such a house-cleaning as the people rose up and voted for in 1890 regardless of party. In order that the friends of good government and advocates of ring rule may be arrayed against each other, the Democrats will put out a county ticket from end to end and appeal to all good citizens to give it their support.

There is a universal desire that Ex-Gov. H. Myers, of Crofton, who has for years been the ablest and most attentive member of the fiscal court should head the ticket as a candidate for county judge. He has killed innumerable jobs in that body that had for their object the looting of the treasury. He is being solicited by good people of all parties to accept the nomination and there is every reason to believe that he can be elected.

Other good men will consent to accept nominations on the ticket and the ringsters may as well realize now as they will later on that they have to fight for all they get this year.

The people are in no humor to have their county taxes increased, their assessments raised, their state taxes piled up and their living expenses augmented by tariff taxation all in one year of universal depression and hard times. Many of them now have their little homes mortgaged to their full value or advertised for sale by the sheriff or tax collector, and they will vote to call a halt in this sort of business.

Let Retrenchment and Reform be the watchwords.

A NEW MARCH.

A Special Musical Gift to All Readers of Our Paper.

The very latest musical composition to elicit popular approval is "The Broad Street Conservatory March," composed by a young Philadelphian, Roland H. Smith, a pupil of the popular institution to whom his work is dedicated. It is highly inspiring, suggestive as it is of the popular marches written by Sousa. It has been played by all the leading theatre orchestras and concert bands in the Greater City, and the seaside and mountain resorts. The piano part of this excellent march has just been issued, and through a special arrangement with the author we are enabled to present a copy free to every reader of this paper who will send name and address, enclosing this notice and 6 cents in stamps to cover mailing and postage, to the Broad Street Conservatory of Music, 1391 South Broad Street, Philadelphia. The retail price of the March is 40 cents and this is an offer that should be appreciated by our musical friends.

Outlook.

Mr. Walter G. Dickerson died at his home near Herndon December 6, 1896, in his 33rd year of age, after a painful illness of three weeks; at the close of a beautiful Sabbath day, his spirit took its flight to Him who gave it, a fitting and sweet time to enter into rest. He was the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Dickerson, of Danville, Co. Va., came to Christian county almost eight years ago, united with the Methodist church at Herndon shortly after he located here. He was an active useful worker in his Master's vineyard, and will be greatly missed in his church, and was a kind, obliging neighbor, all that a loving wife could desire, and his sad, untimely death is very regretted by all. Mr. Dickerson possessed many noble and lovely traits of character; he cultivated a bright happy disposition, patient and uncomplaining in affliction and adversity, and almost his last breath was spent in singing his Master's praise; he sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul," when nearly all his strength was gone.

The funeral services were conducted by his pastor Rev. G. W. Lyon, at his home, and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather a large concourse of people were present.

He was twice married, his first consort being Miss Mollie Wells of Virginia, who lived but a short time after her marriage; after he came to Kentucky he married Miss Mary E. Boyd, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. L. Boyd, who with two children survives him.

Our tenderest sympathies go out to the heart broken wife and little children who will never know a father's love and care. We commend them to our Heavenly Father who doeth all things well. May He comfort and uphold her in this great bereavement, and may she look away from her trouble to the reunion beyond the "Gates Ajar." "A NEIGHBOR."

JOE BLACKBURN AT FRANKFORT AND FULL OF FIGHT

Hunter here of the Republican Nomination—Tony Carroll Talking His Head Off.

Frankfort, Mar. 10.—Blackburn's local friends wink the other eye when the story about his late arrival from Washington and probable refusal to enter the fight is mentioned. If Blackburn has really given up hope of preventing the election of a Republican he has done so only on the theory that the Senate will refuse to seat the men who are elected by such votes as those of Speed, Lister and one or two others who are not entitled to seats in the House.

Those who insist that a refusal to seat the new Republican House would be a "revolutionary outrage" are told that it would be only just retaliation to the Republican majority in the House, where they already announce they will allow Lieberth and others, who have clearly forfeited their seats, to come back and hold on.

Hou. Speed Smith, Republican clerk of the House, is here today, and will return Friday. Mr. Smith does not do much talking but he evidently has the settled idea about what the House clerk can do in the joint session that some persons have known by the rules already adopted and the constitution on the subject that the Senate clerk is chief clerk of the joint assembly and that the House clerk only assists him.

SENATE'S MOST CLAIMS.

Louisville, March 10.—After an informal conference of some friends and advisers of Dr. Goffrey Hunter at the Victoria Hotel, the following statement was made by E. T. Frank: "We have made a complete canvass of the Legislature, and without counting the members that are doubtful, Dr. Hunter will receive fifty-one votes in the caucus and seventy-five votes on the joint ballot. In this estimate five gold Democrats are counted in. We are sure of their support."

While Dr. Hunter is counseling himself with the thought that the gold Democrats, or part of them at least, will vote for him, comes the startling statement on the part of a gold man that "Rather than vote for Doctor Hunter the gold Democrats would vote for Joe Blackburn or a silver Democrat. This gentleman who is authority for this statement knows a thing or two about the situation, and he backs up the statement by saying that the action of the gold Democrats in voting for an out-and-out silver man in preference to Hunter, is that they would not consistently support a man who had given pledges to bribe."

GOLDFIELD WILL BE ASKED.

Peach, Ky., Mar. 9.—Senator J. W. Ogilvie, who has been past with exerts for over a year, will be unable to attend the extra session of the legislature, and his supporters to-day that the venerable senator does not suffer as much now as formerly, but is still unable to walk or leave his bed. He has intimated nothing about resigning, but it is thought that he will.

THE FIGHT AGAINST HUNTER.

Frankfort, Ky., March 10.—Frankfort is having a little "fourteen night" tonight. It comes before the bigger show to open in full blast to-morrow and Friday night. On the boards to-night Judge Holt is the only star who is supported, or will be, by three of five Representatives who have arrived. These are: Ball, of Henderson; Bailey, of Morgan; B. of Boyle; and Irony Grider, of Coney, and Greer, of Johnson.

The anti Hunter men here do not talk as much as they did. Some of them speak very freely of the burn and his friends and if he have a card up their sleeves it may be that Blackburn slipped it to them, or at least knows it is there.

One thing is certain. Neither the anti-Hunter Republicans nor Democrats who are here seem, or look like men who believe that their worst enemy has even a chance to win.

On the surface Hunter seems to be nearer the premonition than he has ever been before.

Very dramatic and also very sad is the ending of "A Martyr to Love," a novel by Joanna E. Ford, that Town Topics presents as the leading feature of the latest edition of Tales from Town Topics. The title of the story implies a sacrifice of some sort, and one that the heroine makes in a line enough to move the stoniest of cynics to some sort of emotion. She gives her life to save her lover from the knowledge of his sin.

For a tale that has more meaning than satire in "A Martyr to Love" and the tale is told in sprightly and at the same time forceful manner. It is true that there are more matters than satire in the book; but this will hardly be regarded as a fault by the readers of this epic quarterly. The rest of the volume, which is a collection of series of the Tales, sparkles with the usual array of brilliant verse, burlesques, witticisms and short stories from old volumes. Town Topics.

My First Effort.
(For the Republican.)
Time, the eyes and dimpled cheeks impudently hold out shy smiles.
To see the hands and white and soft.
To see the words that are said.
To see the eyes and red.
To see the smiles and the dimpled cheeks.
To see the dress and graceful fold.
To see the purse so full of gold.
To see the necessity of a dress.
To see the dress in which I was cast.
To see the form of a man in a trap.
To see the necessity of the trap.
To see the music with tones so grand.
To see the brush with artistic hand.
To see the voice that sings so sweet.
To see the trip of a shapely foot.
To see the language spoke with ease.
To see the jewels rich and rare.
To see the knowledge of the land.
To see the mark in society's hand.
To see the name of a wider land.
To see the thought and apply said.
To see the blood that makes the fight.
To see the poetry with the white.
But 'tis the voice that soft and sweet.
Both in the home and on the street.
She's lost to all self-conscious pride.
And faints in others she would hide.
She's modest in her every speech.
Kindness and courtesy to teach.
To see the smile that is so good.
Her every act is one of love.
Patient she with every ail.
Learned in the art of self control.
Always her anger doth subside.
Loving and patient—gentle and true.
Over power the grief which makes one feel.
Superior to those under poverty's heel.
Kadour neglect when attention deserves.
Stole 't is right and not to weary.
Ingratitude comes when thanks she should get.
Still there's a true girl and never doth fret.

A production of seasonal magnitude will be given at the opera house tomorrow evening. Lincoln J. Carter's superb scenic melodrama, "The Fall Mail," as its name indicates, it deals largely with the railroad in its incidents, but it presents an abundance of incidents that are drawn from their magnitude and admirable in their execution. The steamboat is said to be a wonder of clever conception and a perfectly mechanical work, and the railroad scene, with its train going at a terrific rate of speed, makes the stage seem like a perfect reality. The Niagara Falls scene is wonderfully beautiful and the play is said to be more elaborate than anything ever before attempted in this city. There are a multitude of minor effects that contribute to make the performance a revelation of realism. The whistles, and bells splashing are heard as the boat leaves the wharf. The sounds that tell us of an approaching train heralds the approach of the freight and the fast mail train. The latter rushing by with people leaning from the windows and the life who has just saved her lover's life by fastening a letter to the mail pouch. The roaring of Niagara Falls is heard and the mist and spray are said to be shown vividly. The play is under the personal direction of L. J. Carter, the author. The cast is said to be a capable one. The play is starting to meet the intensity of its climaxes, and these when presented with all the effects of the intrinsic stage settings, brings the interest to a degree that is rarely attained, even in the melodrama. A large number of people are employed in the production, which is in many particulars the result of care and skill combined.

Two Trains Discontinued.
L. & N. passenger trains No. 91 (New Orleans limited) due here at 9:12 a. m. and No. 92 (Nashville and Evansville local), due at 10:15 a. m. have been discontinued until further notice. No 92 will make local stops at all stations for passengers until further notice.

The wreck on the E. & T. H. road caused the action. As soon as the track can be repaired these trains will likely be put back on their regular runs.

A NEW INTOXICANT.

The Use of Cocaine Snuff in a Connecticut Town.

The epidemic of a new and suitable intoxicant has fallen on a Connecticut town, and it is said to be stealing away the brains and substance of many of the inhabitants with startling rapidity. When rye and bourbon have palled on the palate of the whiskey drinker, sulphuric ether has been known to be substituted to the satisfaction of the imbiber; morphine and chloral are well known to the medical profession, and laudanum cocktails are a not infrequent pick-me-up, but the new stimulant is said to transcend all these in its fascination and destructive potency. It is called cocaine snuff, and is described as being composed of cocaine, sugar of milk, muslin and morphine, and pepper mint extract, and applied to the nostrils like tobacco snuff. It was first described by a physician as a remedy for catarrh. The patient who used it told a neighbor of its effects, and, explaining the effect, the news spread, and soon a whole section of the town was submitting itself to treatment for catarrh by the new seductive remedy. Now, the town druggists cannot supply the demand for it, and among the victims are children of tender years and hundreds of factory work people. Its effect when used to excess are sleeplessness, hysteria and finally paralysis. There is talk of an appeal to the legislature for its suppression, the evil, but meanwhile it rages with great violence.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

ECHOPHONE.

THE LATEST TALKING MACHINE

When Edison invented the phonograph, which reproduces the human voice, it was considered the greatest invention of the age—and so it was.

Just think a moment—Human voices, bands of music, songs of all kinds, speeches and lectures by great statesmen reproduced by these machines.

Why are not phonographs in every household? They cost too much—$40 to $200.

We have solved the problem. An Echophone will be shipped you (express charges to be paid by the purchaser), and "Leslie's Weekly" every week for one year, for the remarkably low price of $9.00.

The Echophone is run by clock work. Any child can operate it. One record goes with each machine; extra records, 50 cents each. The phonograph and graphophone cylinders can be used in this machine. If the talking machine is not perfectly satisfactory, we will refund you your money.

"Leslie's Weekly" is considered the best and most popular illustrated weekly in America. Its subscription price is $4.00 per year, and the echophone $10.00. Now you wonder how we can sell both for $9.00. We will tell you. We want 250,000 subscribers to "Leslie's Weekly." We believe that we will get them this way. Those who advertise with us when we publish that number of papers will pay for our loss now. Therefore, the number of machines will be limited—"First come, first served."

RUDYARD KIPPLING.

As a Newspaper Man in San. Lahora

A. N. S. F.

Kipling has said that he who has once been a journalist remains a journalist to the end. He told this in a semi-outgoing article.

As a boy from school Kipling was brought out to India, and began at once to earn his modest monthly wage at the bottom of the ladder of Anglo-Indian journalism. Newspaper work in India is carried on by three classes of men. The natives—Hindoo, Mohammedan and Sikh—labor side by side setting up the type and working the machines. Europeans and domiciled British subjects supply the staff of "readers," while the comparatively expensive, because imported, Anglo-Indians fill the editorial staff.

And who are the shorthand reporters and sub-editors? In Kipling's day up-country newspaper had none. The editorial staff comprised two men, did the entire work of getting out the daily paper, and if you want to know how Kipling worked as one of the two men who produced the Civil and Military Gazette daily, with its seven pages of reading matter and seven of advertisements, you could not do better than turn into that large double bungalow on the Lahore Mall and ask the Man Kukhna-um-din, the Mohammedan foreman, printer; ask Bahl Pertab Singh, the loyal and orthodox Sikh book-keeper; ask Babu Hakim Ali, the courteous Moslem clerk, to whom was intrusted the task of pasting Kipling's printed work into volumes for in the earliest days Kipling had the careful habits that so seldom accompany genius such as his; ask Habibulla, the willing chappiassi, on whose head Kipling's office box came and went daily. They will tell you how Kipling worked.

As a journalist he was the man whom all editors seek and find. He was a staff in himself. He distrusted his own powers, it is true, so much that he demanded a leading article from him filled him with anguish. He said it was "above him," and scarcely wrote five in as many years. But for every other kind of work, from writing editorial "notes" to putting side leads to paragraphs, or reporting a police court case, he was as willing as he was gifted.

There are nights in the Punjab when the rains are delayed and the thermometer ranges about 100 degrees day and night; when the day's waking thoughts of a busy brain twist themselves into torturing nightmares in those stifling hours that precede the dawn, and the dawn brings no relief. Such nights there were in 1887, and the English-speaking world then went near to losing Kipling before he had heard of him.

But he never slacked in his work, of which on "high-collar" days there was more than enough. A "high-collar" day, it may be explained, was one on which no telegrams from England were received before going to press, and editorial "Notes of the Day" had to be written to fill the column which the telegrams should have occupied, thus bringing the editorial matter close up to the head, like a high collar, of the first column.

At other times a multiplicity of telegrams crowded out so many "Notes of the Day" that several of these, dealing with cognate subjects, had to be strung together into what Kipling called "patent seamless" leaders. Outside contributors to papers in India nearly all belong to the civil or military services, and their contributions were often bald in style, though welcome for the information they contained. Adding the few lines of comment to qualify their contributions to be used as notes Kipling described as "fitting on the whiplash," and his were always neatly tied and keen in application.—Academy.

Prizes for Employes.

The Armour Packing company, of Kansas City, has just paid out $1,000 in prizes to the engineers, firemen and coal wheelers who have made the best records in saving fuel and repairs during the past year. There were 140 men in the competition and the prize money was distributed among 67 of them. The largest amount of prize money received by one man was $40.18, while the smallest sum was 30 cents, received by a fireman who had worked only 30 days. The company addressed letters to the men expressing appreciation of the interest taken by them in the work and the consequent saving of fuel and expense of repairs. The company is pleased with the success of the experiment and has renewed the offer for the year ending November 1, 1897.

The only fortress in the United States is Fortress Monroe, at Old Point Comfort, in Virginia. It was built for the purpose of defending the naval yard of Norfolk against any possible attack. Its area is about 80 acres, surrounded by a moat filled with water from 8 to 15 feet deep and from 75 to 100 feet wide.

SOME BIG FIGURES.

Prodigious Numbers of Eggs and Fry Produced.

People who are interested in fish, whether as sportsmen or because of the money that may be made in the fish business, will find in the list printed annual report of the United States fish commissioners (1894) a most interesting lot of information mixed in with no end of data attractive only to fish cultivators. Even the statistics in the shape of tables of figures are reasonably certain to attract the attention of every reader. Thus no fewer than 34 different kinds of fish were kept under the fostering care of the fish commissioners, and the variety was great enough to include everything that any fisherman might see—the trout, the omanish, the salmon and the bass for the man with a fly rod; the catfish for the man with pole, boy and slings; the shad, herring, cod, haddock, and whitefish for the man with net; and the carp for the farmer anxious for a fertilizer for his fields. Even the ladies who delight in aquariums might obtain from the Civil and Military Gazette daily, with its seven pages of reading matter and seven of advertisements, you could not do better than turn into that large double bungalow on the Lahore Mall and ask the Man Kukhna-um-din, the Mohammedan foreman, printer; ask Bahl Pertab Singh, the loyal and orthodox Sikh book-keeper; ask Babu Hakim Ali, the courteous Moslem clerk, to whom was intrusted the task of pasting Kipling's printed work into volumes for in the earliest days Kipling had the careful habits that so seldom accompany genius such as his; ask Habibulla, the willing chappiassi, on whose head Kipling's office box came and went daily. ## THE LAW TOO GENEROUS.

Importers Object to a Practice Common to Many European Tourists.

Americans who are in the habit of going to Europe in the summer, and of taking the opportunity while there to lay in a store of raiment, will be pained to learn of the opinion of the Retail Dry Goods association of New York that altogether too much merchandise comes into New York from Europe, and that something ought to be done to induce returning travelers who bring in goods to contribute their proper share to the expenses of government. Mr. Bloomington, who is going to Washington to see the ways and means committee of the house about it. He believes that the value of merchandise which comes duty free into New York every year is not less than $50,000,000. He complains that under a recent decision of the supreme court as to necessary wearing apparel a dressmaker may bring 40 dresses back from Paris, and bring them all through the customs without paying duty. Bloomington and the dry goods men think that so generous an interpretation of the law is unfair to the importers who pay duties, and he is going to try to have something done about it. The law, however, is so beneficent that it is not likely to be changed. It is an extensive share of the acreage set aside for what is known as future punishment is to be devoted to persons, otherwise exemplary, who, smuggled dutiable effects through the custom house. The subject is a sad one, involving insinuations as to perjury, bribery, and plain and variegated greed which are depressing even to opticians who are able to doubt their truth.—Harper's Weekly.

ABOUT BACILLI.

They Make Possible the Larger Life We See Around Us.

Experience has emphatically taught the lesson that "diseases are more easily prevented than cured." The reason for this is that prevention is the discovery of their exciting causes. These exciting causes may be chemical or organic—chemical, as in the case of bad smells from fertilizer or oil-refining factories and gas works, or of poisonous exhalation from sewers, decaying animal or vegetable matter, or offensive chemicals, organic, such as the specific germs of sickness, so abundant in the earth on which we tread, the air we breathe, the water we drink, the foods we consume, the moving dust and innumerable objects with which we come in contact. Like Milton's angels, "they thicken air, darken heaven, and rule this lower world." It is not always clear, Dr. C. E. Chandler asserts that some are known to be animal in character, others vegetable. All kinds of food contain them. Any liquid containing animal substance, exposed to the air, contains a swarm of them. Hay is always rich in bacilli. Human beings are never free from them. They are in plants and living bodies, in saliva, in all the secretions, even in the human menses of the alimentary canal, the skin, the bronchial passages, and even where ever air, water, or a aliment is brought into contact with the body.

Science derives these beings of the infinitely little their origin and life? Physiologists, like Carpenter and Huxley, conclude that organization is not the cause of life, but that life is the cause of organization. It precedes it, fashions it, builds it up. "Only like can beget like. Spontaneous generation is a chimera." Conditions decide the species of all germs, and these conditions are fixed by the energy working with seeming intelligence to produce ends. Reproductive formal ideas are in the supreme force which organizes them, as classified or unclassified. This supreme force, R. W. Wright comments, is specified in Genesis 1: 11: "And God said: Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after its kind, and the beast of the earth, and the creeping thing, and the fowling, after its kind." Correctly translated, this should read, "whose germinal principle of life, each in itself after its kind, is upon the earth." The germ-idea, living and indestructible, of all organisms, animal or vegetable—man alone excepted—are in the earth, embody themselves wherever the necessary encircling conditions are present, and disembody themselves when the need of environment ceases to be. It is with the germs of disease that hygienic science is mainly concerned. Bacteria is their generic designation. Not all bacteria, however, are malignant. Many, or most, are benignant. They embrace "many families of very similar physical structure, but endowed with very different chemical powers." One class attacks liquids and forms organic masses, and liberates the nitrogen in the shape of ammonia; while another class of bacteria determines the conversion of carbonaceous organic matter and ammonia into simple organic bodies—carbonic acid and nitric acids. They cause the return, through fermentation and putrefaction, of dead organic matter to the atmosphere and to water, maintaining the equilibrium between living nature and dead nature, assure the same composition of the atmosphere, and impart fertilizing quality to water. Pasteur claimed that their presence is indispensable to the germination of seeds, the growth of plants, and the digestion of food, as well as to the diseases of silk-worms and grapes. As ferments, they change the juice of the grape into wine, transform cider into vinegar, sour liquids and ferment, ripen cheese, rot timber, and putrefy all organic masses.—Richard Whately, in Harper's Magazine.

The Daring Northmen.

The Danes, or Northmen, first became prominent in European history in 783, when they began to ravage the north coast of France and southern shores of Great Britain. The daring, these hardy seamen was remarkable, for in their small ships they even penetrated the Mediterranean and became terrorists to the seaboard population of Italy, Sicily and Greece. The first king of Denmark is said to have been Skjold, 60 B. C.
